

Section Worksheet

Names:

To receive full credit for this part of the History Fair project you must submit this form with a typed double spaced 1 paragraph section, and typed labels to correspond with the primary sources described below. On this form you are to explain the specific topic of the section, how it connects to your thesis, and how it relates to the theme. The typed section should match the outline submitted, and be long enough to include all relevant information, but not so long as to overwhelm the reader. To save space try to not repeat information used on the primary source labels in the paragraph section.

Section Title:

What specific topic is covered in this section: _____

How does this section connect to your thesis: _____

How does this section connect to the theme "Innovation in History: Impact and Change" : _____

Primary Sources

Each section on the board will include between 3 and 5 primary source documents. In this area write a description of the primary sources you will include. This will include the format, content, and relevance of the primary source. On your typed sheet include a label for each primary source. This label will explain what the source is, and how it supports the specific topic of your section.
